A dog, supposed to be mad, was killed in Columbia last Tuesday afternoon. For a time there was great deal of excitement, every body being confident that the dog had rabies. He bit a little son of Mrs. Nannie Scaf, killed a small dog belonging to Mr. J. T. Barbee, and bit a number of other dogs.

Last week there were fifteen cases of typhoid fever reported from Kimble, Russell county, and two deaths. There is some fever at Kimble, and there has been one death. Reports of an epidemic are generally exaggerated. We understand there have not been so many cases, and those who are sick are in a fair way to recover.

There will be preaching at the following places next Sunday: W. S. Dudgeon, Bethlehem; Lawrence Williams, Campbellsville; W. H. C. Sandridge, Hopewell; F. C. Shearer, Hutchison School-house; H. T. Jesse, Price's Chapel; Tobias Huffaker, Neatsburg; G. W. Montgomery, Knifley; T. F. Walton, this city.

Mr. Ben. T. Vaughan, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Russell county, died last Thursday. He was about eighty years old and will be greatly missed in the neighborhood of Creelsboro, where he resided for many years. He was a familiar figure throughout the county and the news of his death caused general regret.

This office received a sample of corn raised by Wm. Wallace Bernald whose home is on Sulphur fork. This young man is only 11 years old and cultivated five acres in corn. The ear sent to the News office is eleven inches long and as fine as is generally seen. This ear is said to be a fair sample of his entire crop. It shows what energy will do.

Louisville will hold a Horse Show October 15 to 19, inclusive. This will be Kentucky's initial attempt at an indoor Horse Show; in fact it will be the first big Horse Show to be held in the South. The Association has 100 members, the leading citizens of Louisville, and they have made plans to accommodate a great throng of visitors.

The law suit brought by Lee & Fulk, owners of the stage line between Columbia and Campbellsville, against Boering & Pearl, mail contractors, was dismissed last week, the latter agreeing to pay the cost of the suit. They also agreed to pay Messrs. Lee & Fulk $510 per annum for carrying the mail between this place and Campbellsville.

The people in the vicinity of Milltown are in fine spirits. The bridge across Russell's Creek has been completed, and not again will high water interfere with their business. About four months in the year the creek at Milltown is past fording, and heretofore has caused much inconvenience, but now the people can cross "dry shod" every day in the year.

Coffey Bros., of Columbia, had their grand old saddle stallion, Kentucky Squirrel, at the Liberty fair and he was the subject of much favorable comment. It was the first time he had been shown in six years, but he got the blue all the same. He is the fastest racing horse in Kentucky and one of the very best breeders.—Interi-or Journal.

Mr. John Green Sublett is very fond of children especially when they are progressing rapidly with their studies. He is one of the trustees of the Cane Valley school, taught by Mrs. Mary Harvey, and last Friday afternoon he visited the pupils, bringing them a nice treat. The children were highly pleased, and will ever remember Mr. Sublett as one of their best friends.

Rev. Isaac J. Heizer, who was principal of the M. & F. High School, this city, several years ago, will be married to-day to Miss Marion Palmer Green, who is the only daughter of Dr. E. M. Green, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, that city. Rev. Heizer is pastor of a Church at Hastings, Colorado, and the couple will leave immediately for their home.

FARM FOR SALE.—160 acres of land, sixty acres good timbered land, balance bottom land, on the waters of Cane Fork, Russell county, 6 miles North East Jamestown, 1 mile West Jamestown and Somerset road. Well improved; good orchard and good buildings. Splendid barn, will sell on reasonable terms. A good home for any man. H. McBeath, Irvin's Store, Ky.

Mr. Bassett Hurt, one of our best farmers, was in town Monday dressed in a flax suit. Twenty-five years ago Mr. Hurt raised the flax from which his suit was made. He pulled the flax, watered it and laid it away. Last year he procured the material out of this and had a suit made. It is neat and reminds many of us of the good old days of long ago. The material is just as good as the year it was raised.

The death of the young woman in an operating chair at Sturgis, Ky., last week, the young man in sin when taking his own life, his body falling across the corpse of his sweetheart, the arrest and jailing of the Doctor, who attempted the operation, is horrible to contemplate. The company of virtuous women, honest and upright young men is desirable. Go wrong if you will, and your sins will find you out in spite of the devil.

Last Saturday afternoon two colored women, who live out of town, were in a buggy, drawn by a mule, and were driving out Greensburg street. When opposite the residence of Mr. Claud Hurt the mule became frightened, quickly turned, upset the buggy, dumping the occupants into the street. The mule took down the side street, but was soon checked. The buggy, which belonged to John J. Smith, was considerably damaged, but the women were not hurt.

The last letter by Eld. Z. T. Williams, published in the News, indicated that another one would follow from Paris to Montpelier, Kentucky, and doubtless many of our readers have been expecting it. It was fully Mr. Williams' intention to write the letter, but since his return he has been so busy with his church work he has had but little time to write, and the probabilities are that the promised letter will not appear. It was a quiet trip home, and should another article be written it would not contain any interesting features that have not already been published.
